Southern Chester County Chamber to Host Fall Luncheon October 20 at Hartefeld National Golf Club

Guest Speaker Ron DeGregorio of Exelon Generation, to share insight into tomorrow's energy business

Kennett Square, PA . . . The Southern Chester County Chamber of Commerce will hold its Annual Fall Luncheon on Thursday, October 20, beginning at 11 am at Hartefeld National Golf Club in Avondale, PA. The keynote speaker is Ron DeGregorio, Senior Vice President, Exelon Generation and President, Exelon Power, who will present Tomorrow's Energy Industry: An Exelon Perspective.

The Annual Fall Luncheon welcomes business and community leaders from across the region. The fee is $45 for Members; $55 for Non-Members; and $395 for a table of eight. To register, visit www.scccc.com.

As president of Exelon Power, DeGregorio oversees the operations and maintenance of Exelon Generation's fossil (coal, oil and natural gas), landfill gas, hydro, wind and solar-powered fleet of generating assets that are capable of generating more than 15,000 megawatts of electricity in 16 states and Alberta, Canada. DeGregorio also served as chief integration officer for Exelon during the company's merger with Constellation Energy. In the position, he led the integration of all processes, procedures, systems, staffing, and synergies between the two companies.

In addition to his professional duties, DeGregorio also actively supports various charities in the Philadelphia area, including the United Way, and has served as an executive board member of the Tri-County Chamber of Commerce.
