Kennett Square, PA – The Southern Chester County Chamber of Commerce kicked off a busy 2019 at its Annual Meeting Breakfast during which the Chamber introduced its 2019 Board of Directors, shared its strategic initiatives for the year, and recognized outstanding service to the Chamber by its members. More than 100 people attended the event held January 16, at Hartefeld National Golf Club.

Abbey Gau of Longwood Gardens was awarded Volunteer of the Year for her outstanding support. Geoffrey Bosley of LGB Properties was awarded "Closer of the Year" for his work in bringing new members to the Chamber and Houston Baker of Concord Home Mortgage was named Ambassador of the Year for his outstanding service.

"We are grateful for our many members who give so much time and energy to our Chamber," said Cheryl Kuhn, President of SCCCC. "Their passion and commitment helps our Chamber to thrive and to continue to be an invaluable resource in the Southern Chester County community."
