

New JJ #88762 - Gish's Corporate Office - Press Release - New Store Opening Kennett Sq

FOR RELEASE ON/AFTER APRIL 17, 2024

Gish's Furniture Grand Opening Event in Kennett Square – You Are Invited To Meet Craftsmen, Enjoy Whoopie Pies – Win Free Furniture

Kennett Square, PA (April 12, 2024) - Gish's Furniture has completed the renovations and now occupies the former library at 216 East State Street in Kennett Square, PA. A grand opening celebration will take place from April 19th-27th. Throughout that week a special "Spin the Amish Buggy Wheel of Fortune" sale will be going for customers who make a purchase during this time.

Additionally, both weekends, guests can meet one of the accomplished craftsmen who creates some of Gish's fine wooden pieces while enjoying a homemade Amish treat – whoopie pies. The public is invited to enjoy these treats and browse the new Gish's store from 10 AM to 6PM both weekends.

A ribbon cutting ceremony, attended by Mayor Matt Fetick, is scheduled for Friday, April 19, 2024 at 2 PM.

Gish's Furniture is sure to delight shoppers with an awe-inspiring selection of custom furniture. Guests will immediately recognize the creativity and attention to detail that the craftsmen put into their work -- the hallmark of Gish's 20-year legacy in building relationships with the best artisans. "Connecting Gish's with the local community is important to us. The familiar culture of farming in Kennett Square reflects the rich heritage of Amish farming, local markets and furniture making; the backbone of our history. It feels like home, only better!" Gish exclaimed. "Where else can you find world-class restaurants and top-of-the-line custom furniture but our new home away from home – Kennet Square!"

"We are thrilled to be part of the community and build on the cornerstone of successful development begun by faithful visionaries years ago," said Gish. "We are committed to investing in the community and seeing it flourish even more."

"It is a natural fit to open a location in Kennett Square due to the steady increase in customers traveling from the greater Philadelphia area," stated Michael Gish, Founder and CEO of Gish's Furniture. Since Gish's Furniture hand delivers everything we sell, this expansion brings quality hand-crafted Amish furniture closer to the Philadelphia buyer.

Gish's Furniture provides a superior customer experience with a team of knowledgeable and caring associates, placing the highest value on long-term relationships with customers while supplying sustainable, quality home furnishings. Gish's other four showrooms are located in Lancaster, Camp Hill, East Earl, PA and Cockeysville MD.
