Whisman Giordano & Associates, LLC Names Two New Directors

[Newark, Delaware] — Whisman Giordano & Associates, LLC (WGA) is pleased to announce that Edward Devenny, CPA, and Alex Lalani, CPA, have both been elevated to the position of Director for the firm. Combined, they bring nearly four decades of experience and leadership.

Devenny has nearly two decades of experience providing accounting, auditing, tax, and consulting services to businesses and individuals. With regard to the Directorship, he says, “This is what you work for your whole career. I’m truly grateful and very optimistic about the future of the firm.”

Lalani has been with Whisman Giordano for over a decade, delivering tax and consulting services to businesses and individuals. He has over 15 years of experience and specializes in closely-held businesses, construction, estates and trusts, high-wealth individuals, and real estate. Lalani shared, “From my first day at Whisman Giordano, I was given the opportunity to serve clients and help grow the practice. There’s so much potential for the firm going forward. I credit my success to all the supportive people around me who have made me a better professional.”

Managing Director Lisa DeRose, CPA, CGMA, says, "Alex and Ed are incredible assets to the Whisman Giordano team. They have a client-first mentality that leads them to always look for new ways to serve. They are both true leaders who help the rest of the team grow. Their appointment to directors was an easy decision. We are very happy that they have stepped into these new roles that will continue to help the firm excel.” Devenny and Lalani shared that they consider WGA a special place where the culture is built around helping each be their best.
